SECTION 27.2707 - Official's Answer

Within fourteen days after the publication of the notice of intention to circulate a recall petition, the official whose recall is sought or his designated representative may answer to the statement. Such answer shall be three hundred words or less in length and must be signed by the individual proposing the answer or, in the case of an organization, by two officers. A copy of the answer, if any, shall be published by the proponents at least once in a daily newspaper of general circulation. A published copy shall also be filed forthwith in the office of the Clerk.
